

Tony Egginton - Mayor of Mansfield

“My Top 10”

Tony Egginton has been Executive Mayor of Mansfield District Council since 2002 and was re-elected to the role in May this year.

1 Top book...

Brian Clough's autobiography, which proves beyond doubt he was the best man not to rise to the role of the England job.

2 Top Movie...

'The Italian Job' starring Michael Caine because I love Mini Coopers.

3 Top TV show...

'Cold Feet' because it shows how different relationships can be in three couples.

4 Top sport...

Golf, but I don't get enough time to play what is a very challenging game, after enjoying playing football for many years.

5 Top play...

Going to the theatre to watch a play has never been my forte — but out of the three that I have seen it must be 'Pyjama Tops' starring Fiona Richmond.

6 Top holiday...

Florida for the climate and the theme parks, particularly Sea World where my daughter really enjoyed the dolphins.

Also, Benalmadena on the Costa del Sol, where I enjoy two weeks' solace every year.

7 Top meal...

Moules mariniere followed by a well-done fillet steak and, if room, a nice Camembert cheese with a glass or two of port.

8 Top person...

The ex-mayor of New York Rudolph Giuliani whose zero-tolerance drive made an incredible difference to the lives of so many.

9 Top memory...

The 1998 World Cup final at the Stade de France when France beat Brazil 3-0.

10 Top music...

Blues and heavy rock, but my favourite track is John Miles' Music (Music was my first love, And it will be my last).

...and the thing you hate the most?

Cold, wet and windy days when very few people show any happiness.

■ Tops for Tony - Golf, Rudolph Giuliani, the '98 World Cup final, blues and John Miles.
